TWO INVITED TO OWN 60th ANNIVERSARY PARTY

A week or two ago a retired couple opened the morning's mail to find a most unusual invitation.

Diamond studded outside and inside pictures of a family tree, it was a request to attend a party celebrating their own 60th wedding anniversary.

The couple who seem to sparkle just as much as those diamond decorations, are Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles, former Torontonians who now live in Minden. Their party is tomorrow at the home of their son Albert, 11 Langmuir Cres.

Married in the old Euclid Avenue Methodist Church on August 26, 1896, they first met in the church's Young People's Club.

Both are English born. Mrs. Knowles, 79, is the former Lillian Ainsbury and came to Canada at the age of three while her husband, who is 82, has been here since he was nine.

Their Toronto home was on what is now Riverside Dr. and at one time both were staunch members of the Euclid Ave. church's choir.

Though retired (he owned his own business) Mr. Knowles finds he is still kept busy. His hobby is fancy woodwork and he has several times exhibited parquet tables at the Minden fair.

But his real interest is his garden which has become quite a tourist attraction.

The couple have three children who will all be at the party, Evelyn, Mrs. H. N. J. Shaw, Winnipeg; Geo. Willard, Windsor; and Albert who lives here. There is also a grandchild, Dianne,

George's daughter who is 18 and has just graduated from high school.

Asked for recipe for a happily married life (the couple are holidaying for a week at the Park Plaza hotel) Mrs. Knowles laughed and then thought for a moment, "Staying together and a lovely family," she said.

Among the gifts received were 60 roses from Mrs. Knowles' uncle. They also received a lot of long distance telephone calls, including a cable from Buckingham Palace and from the Right Honourable Louis St. Laurent.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Stouffer, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Coburn and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kirkwood of Minden.

May we join in wishing them many more years of happiness together.

Weekly Roundup

Decoration day was held at Evergreen Cemetery on Sunday last with a fair number in attendance. Rev. Clifford Manning of the United church was the speaker for the occasion with Lieut. Leonard of the Salvation Army and Pastor L. A. Fairhurst of the Gospel Lighthouse also taking part in the service.

Mr. Frank McIntyre sang the number "There's No Disappointment In Heaven."

Those present remarked on the splendid appearance of the cemetery.

We are sorry to report that the condition of Mrs. Wallace Woods, who is at present confined to a Toronto hospital due to having suffered a brain hemorrhage is at time of writing little improved.

Some of the streets in the village are receiving a coat of mulch which will be a great improvement. Dysart council have embarked on a program that calls for the mulching of sections of village streets every year. Council are to be commended for this action which will in a few years see a hard surface on every street in the village.

On Tuesday evening, August 21 at a bingo held in the new Orange hall, five people hit the jackpot which contained the sum of $460. Mrs. Lloyd Whittaker, Mrs. Roderick Sproats, Dennis Sims and Albert Hawley all received $100 while Mrs. Clifford Kellett was the winner of $60.

In the absence of the Rev. James O'Neil the services of St. George's church were conducted by the Rev. John Kerr of Clarkson. Mr. Kerr was a former rector here having left Haliburton seven years ago.

A delightful shower was held at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Hodgson in honor of Mrs. Robert M. Bishop (nee Sylvia Brodhagen). The

Local Band Invited To Lindsay Fair

The Haliburton County Brass Band have just received an invitation to attend a band tatoon and competition to be held in Lindsay on the Wednesday night of the Lindsay central exhibition.

This is the first time that a band gathering of this kind has been held in Lindsay and bands from Victoria and Haliburton county will compete.

It is expected that a grand parade will line up and come through Kent St. to the fair grounds and each band will parade in front of the grandstand.

It is expected that the county band will attend but at this time no definite statement has been made.

Monarchs Hold Annual Meeting

The Minden Monarchs hockey club held its annual meeting on Monday night of this week at the Minden recreation centre auditorium.

Many interesting points of business came up at this meeting and future plans were laid out for the forthcoming season.

It was learned from the financial statement that the hockey club grossed over $7,000 last winter.

The following is a rundown of the new executive for the 1956-57 season.

President, Mark Vasey; manager, Garnet Lytle; secretary-treasurer Bernard Trepanier; equipment manager and trainer, Willis Walker. The coach will be appointed by the team.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
Haliburton County Echo,
Haliburton, Ont.

Dear Sir:

The following is a copy of a letter I have sent to Department of Public Health, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs:

You will find enclosed a letter we received about March 14, 1956.

(enclosure)

Mr. Harold Brodhagen,
Haliburton, Ont.

Dear Sir:

I am to inform you that at a meeting of the board of health of the Municipality of Dysart held on March 2, 1956 it was resolved that all restaurants within the municipality be notified that they must provide wash rooms and toilets, one for males and one for females for the accommodation of the public before June 1 next as required by Sec. 21 of Schedule "B" of the Public Health Act.

Yours very truly,

G. H. Windsor,
Secretary, Board of Health.

Upon receiving this letter we immediately started making arrangements to have an addition built and washrooms installed with flush toilets and basins with hot and cold running water.

We thought this was going to be enforced and as we are a new business we really couldn't afford to go to this expense, but we did. I'm afraid if we hadn't we would have been forced to close before now.

Our board of health made a pretense at enforcing this law, by sending an appointed inspector around with a questionnaire, which I am sure no more than a few restaurants could pass.

There are still numerous restaurants without washrooms and nothing has been done about it and we have heard nothing from our board of health.

Could it be that there is too close a friendship between some of the members of our board of health and restaurant owners, or haven't they the intestinal fortitude to stand behind and enforce the bylaws passed at their meetings.

Sincerely yours,
Harold Brodhagen.

S. Palmer Speaks On Little Theatre At Minden Rotary

While summer activity is slowing down we note that Lorne Coburn had 16 Rotary and other guests to introduce at last Monday's meeting.

Phil Sturge, in charge of the August program, introduced Slade Palmer of Waverly, N.Y., who spoke on the "little theatre."

Mr. Palmer spoke from experience as he has taken part in this effort in his home community which for this purpose includes not only Waverly but two other towns on the other side of the valley in Pennsylvania with a total population of some 20,000.

We find that they put on about three plays in a season which were rotated amongst these towns. We note that this represented a lot of hard work with much organization but basically very little different from the plays that were put on locally by church groups not so many years ago.

Maurice extended the thanks of the club and guests to Mr. Slade.

Navy League Tag Day This Saturday

Something of what the St. Lawrence Seaway will mean to us here in Ontario will be brought to our attention next Saturday, September 1, 1956 when the annual tag day of the Navy League of Canada will be held. Convenor will be Miss Dorothy Clarke, Haliburton.

Seapower is what is meant by the deep-sea merchant ships which will come sailing up the St. Lawrence Seaway to our Ontario lakeports when it is opened. They will come here to take the produce of our mines, agriculture, forests and factories to the seaports and markets of Great Britain, the U.S., India, Australia and many. And they will bring the products of these countries to us.

This is the sea trade which has built up the commerce and industry of the western nations, and these are the ships which will make it possible for Canada to get the full benefit and advantages of a sea-trading nation. Linked with this seapower are the fighting ships of the Royal Canadian Navy which guard our shores and protect our commerce on the trade routes of the world.

This is the seapower served by the Navy League of Canada celebrated its diamond Jubilee last year by

SHADES OF TOM LONGBOAT

Mr. Stanley Hamilton of Weston, Ont. showed the natives of Haliburton Lake what fortitude and endurance means when he ran from his mother's home on Haliburton Lake to the centre, a distance of approximately seven miles in a short time of 49 minutes.

Just to prove that he was in the pink of condition, for a small wager, he could run back over the same route, but the stakes weren't high enough.

He also ran from Minden to Haliburton in 2 hours and 13 minutes.

—From a bystander.

A Beautiful Mermaid

A young, charming, potential swimmer, Miss Blanche Gallagher of Mount Dennis, Ont., guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton at their summer home, swam across Haliburton Lake Sunday August 12 doing 66 strokes to the minute—a distance of approximately 2½ miles.

greatly extending its nationwide program of youth training to help Canadian boys grow up into good citizens of Canada. This is the cause you help on this tag day and means so much to our sea heritage and that has done so much to help bring the realization of the age-old dream of bringing the sea to our service. Give generously.

MINDEN MERCHANTS ONLY 1 GAME AWAY

The Minden Merchants are only one game away from the Haliburton County softball title. This all came about after the Minden club a 6-4 decision before a large crowd at the Minden ball park on Tuesday night.

Gene Newell, pitching one of his best games of the season, had plenty of stuff riding on the ball and had very little trouble in pulling himself out of the few jams he got into.

Salvatori, on the hill for Haliburton, also pitched a good game but was tagged for some long hits that were costly.

Two home runs highlighted the ball game with Schell connecting for Haliburton while Collis hit one for the Merchants.

After the game being tied 1-1 in the early innings, Haliburton got ahead 2-1. But Minden went ahead 3-2 on a home run effort. But the Minden club put the game on ice scoring three more big runs while Haliburton could only drive in two.

Around the Bases

Believe it or not the game was completed last night before darkness set in. It moved at a very fast pace all evening.

The Haliburton club were minus Murray Hadlow, their hard hitting outfielder and they sure noticed his absence. Murray was in Toronto.

The sixth game of the series will go at Haliburton this Friday night and if Minden wins its all over, but if Haliburton tie up the series the seventh and deciding game will be played in Minden.

The game featured terrific fielding plays from both teams and particularly on the part of Murphy who caught some fine hits in the outfield.

The Haliburton infield played one of their better games.

If you're a ball fan you won't want to miss the wind-up of this series.

Wanted---A National Health Plan

AT A MEETING of the Ross Memorial Hospital board whose deliberations were reported in last week's issue of the Watchman-Warder, the county of Haliburton came in for some bad publicity.

From the article mentioned one would gather that our county council is welching on the matter of payment of hospital bills for indigent patients. One member of the board stated that there was no use of any further representations to the council regarding payment of these accounts as all they would get is promises, but payment would not be forthcoming.

We are not in a position to state why the trouble re the above accounts but we do know that councils here have been billed with accounts for patients that could not be considered indigents by any stretch of imagination. The person who pays their hospital bill before leaving the hospital pays at a much higher rate than the indigent patient whose bill is often held up for months before final approval is given for payment. This, to us, is a strange way to do business.

I know of local citizens who have never had more than just the bare necessities of life but have borrowed money from friends rather than be classed as indigents, but in other cases patients who have had things much easier and can afford new expensive cars have called on the local council to pay the bill.

While it may be termed a socialist dream or too expensive a venture at this time I think more and more people are coming to the conclusion that we must have and will be far better off with a national health plan.

The White Line

LAST WEEK we came upon some men employed by the Department of Highways painting a white line in the centre of a newly laid section of paved road and just thought what a fine thing it would be if every driver kept on his or her right side of the line.

Every day by newspaper, radio and television we are kept informed of the increasing casualty list of injuries and death to humans and property damage to vehicles and in a good many cases all because someone crowded too close or was on the wrong side of the white line.

One fine Sunday afternoon not so long ago in the highlands four people were injured and three vehicles suffered damage because the driver of a fourth vehicle disregarded the white line.

Those of us traveling along the Highway of Life would do well to study the teachings of the Good Book which clearly defines the white line that divides good from evil in order that we may enjoy a happier and more abundant life.

The laws of our country also portray a white line for us to follow in the business and social side of our lives and while it may sometimes seem as though this line is not as straight or distinct as it might be, nevertheless if we keep on the right side of these regulations we will save ourselves a lot of grief and penalties.

So when driving a car or engaging in business, work or play we can't go wrong if we keep well to the right of the white line.

WEDDING

Eastman - Peacock

On Friday, August 3 a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Eastman of Ingoldsby when Dorothy Roberta Peacock, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peacock of Gelert was united in marriage to William Douglas Eastman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eastman of Ingoldsby. The bridesmaid, Barbara Burk, cousin of the bride, wore a ballerina length pink dress of nylon net over satin and matching crown. She carried a bouquet of roses.

The junior bridesmaid, Faye Peacock, sister of the bride, wore a waltz length dress of yellow nylon and matching crown. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The groomsmen were Douglas Carpenter, friend of the groom and Joseph Peacock, brother of the bride.

The happy couple left for a honeymoon in Detroit, Mich., after which they will return to Lindsay where they will reside.

Angling for a "compleat" car?

Two pets—both frisky! "Dachsy's" tricks are fun, but this Pontiac has some tricks up its fenders, too. Pleasant tricks with your budget... and some startling road performances. Your dealer can show you.

Best catch of the day! Oh, we're not talking about the fish... it's only average. It's that Pontiac, and the smiles are for the car, not the fish. See it at your dealer's.

Seems like everyone's looking for the perfect... the "compleat"... car! And it's no farther away than your nearest Pontiac dealer. You'll find proof that Pontiac combines grace, beauty, prestige and performance and reasonable price... a "compleatness" that goes far, far deeper than mere looks or accessories!

Then—Enjoy a Demonstration Drive in this car of cars. Believe us, you'll relish the way it hugs the curves, slides smoothly up or down hills, takes every straightaway with supreme confidence. The ride's the thing... and with Pontiac what a wonderful ride it is.

All this is very exciting... but the best part of all in this "compleat" Pontiac is its price. With all of Pontiac's pleasure and prestige, it's still easily within anyone's budget, priced right down with the lowest. Yes—just like a trout to a "Royal Coachman"... that's how you'll rise to a Pontiac. Be sure you do—soon!

Angling for a "compleat" car?

Two pets—both frisky! "Dachy's" tricks are fun, but this Pontiac has some tricks up its fenders, too. Pleasant tricks with your budget... and some startling road performances. Your dealer can show you.

Best catch of the day! Oh, we're not talking about the fish... it's only average. It's that Pontiac, and the smiles are for the car, not the fish. See it at your dealer's.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

As Izaak Walton put it:
"Tis a wondrous fine catch to be sure."

PONTIAC

Seems like everyone's looking for the perfect... the "compleat"... car! And it's no farther away than your nearest Pontiac dealer. You'll find proof that Pontiac combines grace, beauty, prestige and performance and reasonable price... a "compleatness" that goes far, far deeper than mere looks or accessories!

Then—Enjoy a Demonstration Drive in this car of cars. Believe us, you'll relish the way it hugs the curves, slides smoothly up or down hills, takes every straightaway with supreme confidence. The ride's the thing... and with Pontiac what a wonderful ride it is.

All this is very exciting... but the best part of all in this "compleat" Pontiac is its price. With all of Pontiac's pleasure and prestige, it's still easily within anyone's budget, priced right down with the lowest. Yes—just like a trout to a "Royal Coachman"... that's how you'll rise to a Pontiac. Be sure you do—soon!

Schomberg Defeat Minden

The Minden Merchants, who are currently in the playoffs with the Haliburton Highlanders for the Haliburton County softball title are playing lots of ball.

Last week the Minden club along with their other duties of playing in the set with Haliburton, played a two game playoff series in the Ontario Rural Softball Association playoffs.

The Minden club received a bye in the "B" section and they met Schomberg. The first game was played in Schomberg with the Minden Merchants coming out on the wrong end of a 12-0 count. In this game the Minden club were outclassed by the Schomberg team but not as bad as the score would indicate.

The lights were another item that bothered the Minden club and they had trouble catching the balls in the outfield.

Last Wednesday night the same two clubs returned to Minden and the Schomberg team once again showed plenty of class on the diamond and came out to take the Merchants into camp by the score of 9-0.

The Haliburton Highlanders had earlier intended to play in the O.R.S.A. playoffs but withdrew when it was decided that they had to play in the "A" section.

It seems that the ball played in the Haliburton County softball league is away below par of that played out front.

Safety Appeal For

Labor Day Week End

Summer's last big holiday—the coming Labor Day week end is a time for special attention to safety by everybody, the Hon. James N. Allan, Minister of Highways, states in a special pre-holiday safety appeal.

"The Labor Day week end is a very critical period for accidents," Mr. Allan points out. "Traffic volume will be exceptionally high over the coming week end, with the chances of accidents increased accordingly. Hundreds of thousands of people will be on the move, taking advantage of the last long week end of summer. Then, right after Labor Day, we have more than a million youngsters going back to school and another great need for public attention to safety."

Highway department accident records show that:

"Over the Labor Day week end last year, 30 people were killed in 22 fatal accidents. Two occurred when drivers failed to yield the right of way or stop at a 'through' highway. Two more occurred when drivers attempted to pass in poor circumstances and five collisions took place when drivers failed to stay on their own side of the road. Four more were the result of excessive speed, inattention or both, when cars 'went off the road' and turned over or struck trees or other roadside objects. Three people died in rail crossing collisions. Six pedestrian victims were added to the frightful list. Two of these were tiny children who were permitted to run into the roadway. Two were adults struck in separate accidents on busy highways at night, presumably confident that they could be seen as clearly as they could see the cars' headlights. Two people walking together were struck and killed by a car turning left after dark."

Mr. Allan says: "For the most part, these tragedies could have been prevented by the simple observance of driving and walking behaviour set out in the Highway Traffic Act. No part of this Act is intended to inconvenience anyone. It represents the road experience of literally millions of people. The Act is designed to prevent accidents and provide maximum travel convenience for all. And every time you violate a driving rule, you are potentially a killer. This is a stern statement, but the record shows it to be true.

"I am firmly convinced that when the time comes, as it surely must, when each of us realizes that our normal, face-to-face behaviour must be carried on in our association with other road users, the problem of traffic accidents will be brought under control.

"This coming Labor Day week end will undoubtedly be one of enormous travel, of long trips and many heavily loaded vehicles. There will probably develop many situations to try a driver's patience and courtesy severely. Nevertheless, I ask all who use the streets and highways of the province to make a full effort to drive with care and consideration. This is one sure way to safety on the 'common path'."

in Haliburton county have tried but failed, all getting beaten by high scores. But it was a good try for the Minden Merchants.

HALIBURTON TIE UP

SERIES

The Haliburton Highlanders tied their softball series all up at two games each when they nosed out the Minden Merchants by the score of 7-6 at the Haliburton ball park last Friday night.

One of the best crowds to see a ball game in Haliburton this year turned out to see the home team pull in a victory.

It was a see-saw battle all the way with both teams having the lead at one time or another. Salvatori went all the way for the Haliburton team and although a little shaky at times pitched an outstanding game. Newell started on the hill for the Minden club and was taken out in the late stages of the game when Powell took over the pitching duties.

The game was called in the sixth inning with the Haliburton crew out in front.

Notes on the Game

We understand that Marcel Pryor has taken up employment in another district and wasn't in the line-up on Friday night.

Collis played a terrific game of ball for Minden on Friday night. Not only was he a whiz in the outfield but he hammered that ball for homers, triples and doubles every time he came to the plate.

Murray Hadlow, who is by far the best ball player in the league played another one of his steady games robbing the Minden club of sure hits in the outfield and he also made some big hits for the winners.

Tommy Fitzgerald was behind the plate and Harry Cowan was at first base. Both boys did a good job of keeping the game under control.

Bill Hawkins was another player in the Minden line-up that deserves special mention here as he was hitting that ball at a good clip all night.

The Haliburton club seemed to be getting their men home instead of leaving them stranded on the bases.

We are particularly happy about the large crowds that are turning out for the ball games in the Haliburton County Softball League this summer. All teams have been drawing good crowds and the teams sure deserve them as they are putting up a good class of ball. It looks as though it is one of the best seasons that the league has had for some time now.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton entertained some distinguished guests last week at their summer home on Haliburton Lake: Mr. and Mrs. Ron McCallum, Ron being the son of Sir and Lady McCallum of Argentina, and Mrs. Hunt, also a recent visitor from Argentina.

Drove From Edmonton To Minden, Lucky To Be Alive After Car Took To Ditch

Wayne Griffin of Edmonton has driven over 2,000 miles to reach the home of relatives at West Guilford, Haliburton, only to suffer an accident in which he was lucky to escape with his life. Driving around the edge of Maple Lake his car left the highway, plunged over the shoulder of the road, hit a ditch and Griffin was thrown out, landing several feet in front of the car. The car, fortunately for the driver, hit a large rock and then turned over. Griffin was lying injured behind the rock, but otherwise was not seriously hurt. He was all alone at the time of the accident.

PC Ricard of Minden investigated. A charge is pending.—Watchman-Warder.

HALIBURTON NEEDS PUBLICITY FOR SPRING AND FALL

Two American visitors, medical men by profession, who are spending their annual vacation in the Highlands of Haliburton, were interviewed recently by E. N. Gregory of station CKLY.

One was a former resident of Little Britain, Dr. W. R. Glenny of Pottsville, Pa., and the other Dr. John Ewing of Pittsburgh, Pa. Both have been coming to the Highlands of Haliburton for many years. In fact, Dr. Ewing has been journeying to Loon Lake for some 25 years and likes the country and people so well that now he makes three annual trips, one in the spring, again in the summer and late in the fall.

"I am so delighted with the country and the people, as well as with what Haliburton has to offer that my trip back in the fall is one of my most delightful," said Dr. Ewing. "The foliage is magnificent and simply grand."

Both visitors agreed that Haliburton has much to offer visitors. They spoke highly of the roads, the beautiful scenery, the lakes, the good fishing and they can purchase anything needed in the matter of food and general supplies.

It was freely stated that roads have improved immeasurably, road signs in Ontario in many respects are more advanced than in Pennsylvania and in the matter of accommodating and cleaner on in the fall. road side tables, Ontario is ahead of the U.S. to the south of the border.

Regarding advertising the highlands both gentlemen agreed that there should be more publicity, especially to attract visitors from the U.S. in the spring and in the fall. In the summer, especially in August the resorts are generally filled with "no vacancies" signs in use.

Fish Are "Biting"

Dr. Glenney stated that fishing is good and Dr. Ewing said "yes they are biting, but biting each other." However, both gentlemen admitted that the fishing is good and many fine catches are being reported.

More Roadside Stands

Both visitors believed that there should be more roadside eating stands close to the highways. Because of the lack of these stands many visitors from the U.S. now brought lunches and picnic baskets and made use of the roadside tables. "We do not look for luxurious accommodation or big meals, but simply for a place to get a cup of coffee and possibly hot dogs and sandwiches."

The courtesy and friendliness of the Ontario people was commended.

BANK OF MONTREAL REPORTS

Canada's relationship with the International Finance Corporation, which commences operations this month is likely to be that of a supplier rather than a receiver of capital funds, says the Bank of Montreal in its August Business Review, just released.

Pointing out that I.F.C. has been formed for the purpose of stimulating the flow of private venture capital from the developed to the under-developed countries of the world, the Bof M sees a real need for the new organization despite the number of international institutions already established in the first postwar decade.

The review observes that most of the flow of what might be called productive capital for the establishment or expansion of foreign subsidiaries has come mainly from the U.S., but adds that the amount invested in countries other than in Canada and Western Europe has been relatively small, only $1 billion in the three years 1952 to 1954, and most of this was for oil and mining ventures.

"Many obvious reasons can be advanced to explain the insufficiency of private capital in this respect," says the review, which states that political tensions, fear of discrimination or nationalization and the opportunities for investment at home have acted as deterrents to foreign investment by U.S. firms. "There has also been an evident lack of communication between the under-developed countries and private interests in the capital exporting nations and a consequent unawareness of the investment opportunities available," adds the review.

While admitting that the I.F.C. cannot exert influence on all these factors the B of M says that one of its stated objectives is to endeavor to bridge the gap represented by the lack of communication. It will also attempt to create conditions conducive to a greater international flow of private capital.

The main feature of the charter of I.F.C., the review points out, "is that the corporation is empowered to invest its own funds in 'productive private enterprises in the territories of its members' without requiring any security or guarantee as to repayment." But it can invest its funds only in association with private investors.

"Thus," the B of M continues, "it will not provide the entire capital for any particular enterprise, and it is indeed probable that whenever possible it will contribute only a minority share."

The B of M points out that I.F.C. has been born of one of the most successful international organizations that have yet been established—the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development—and says, "Recognizing the cold but not unreasonable fact that individuals or companies will not risk their money in overseas projects merely because they are exhorted to do so, but only if there is a good prospect of a venture proving to be a profitable one, the I.F.C. is ready to back its appraisals by sharing the risk with pervasive interests and lending the weight of its prestige."

"It would be surprising indeed," concluded the Bof M, "if with the establishment of this new international

Premier Frost Writes On RMH

Toronto, Ont.,

August 22, 1956.

Dear Colonel Moore:

It is a great pleasure, through you, to comend to our people, including business and industry, the case for the extension of the Ross Memorial Hospital.

About half a century ago the late James Ross donated the hospital to our community and counties. It has rendered very great and vital services. The fact is that Lindsay and area, like our province, has grown and developed with the result that this fine hospital of 50 years ago no longer meets the needs and the requirements of the area which it serves. The addition you and your committee propose to the hospital is a very vital need for our community and district. I urge that it be treated as a primary and vital necessity.

Victoria and Haliburton are in a very favored position to participate in the growth of our province. In such development the health of our people is a fundamental. We cannot effectively accomplish the task ahead and achieve the opportunities which are ours if we do not progress in a balanced way. In this progress health is a very important part.

I commend to everyone, business, industry and our citizens far and wide the pressing requirements of the Ross Memorial Hospital and urge generous consideration.

Very sincerely yours,
 Leslie M. Frost.
